

Tony Chestnut

Tony Chestnut knows I love you

(touch toes, knees, chest, head, nose, eye, cross arms in X over chest, point to someone else)

Tony knows, Tony knows

(touch toes, knees, nose – touch toes, knees, nose)

Tony Chestnut knows I love you

(touch toes, knees, chest, head, nose, eye, cross arms in X over chest, point to someone else)

That's what Tony knows

(touch toes, knees, nose)

(Repeat above verse one more time)

Tony, Tony

(touch toes, knees – touch toes knees)

And his sister Eileen

(touch eye, then lean head and body to side)

And Eileen loves Neil

(lean head and body to side, then kneel down on one knee)

And Neil loves Pat

(while kneeling on one knee, pat the knee with one hand)

But Pat still loves Bob

(keep kneeling on one knee, patting the knee, then stand up and bob knees up and down)

And there's Russell

(brush hands quickly along sides of clothes to make a rustling sound)

And Skip

(skip in place)

This song is silly

(make a funny face and twirl index fingers by side of head while rocking side to side)

But it's hip

(slap one hip several times with beat of music)

How it ends

(slap bottom several times with beat of music)

Just one man knows

(raise index finger in #1 sign and then point to nose)

And guess what

(shrug shoulders and put hands out in the "I don't know" position)

It's Tony Chestnut

(touch toes, knees, chest, and head)

Entire song is repeated at a faster tempo

Clap two times fast to end the song!
